About the Program & Position

The Associated Student Government at Western is charged by the President to represent the interests of the Associated Students of Western Washington University (ASWWU) in shared governance of the University. ASWWU Government is a two-body governing system, comprised of the AS Executive Board and the AS Senate.

The ASWWU Executive Board represents student interests to University Administration (Non-Academic Divisions, Departments and Programs), the Board of Trustees, and appropriate external governmental agencies. AS Executive Board positions are responsible for representing our students in issues concerning the University beyond the classroom.

One of the Executive Board’s primary roles is to appoint Western Students to relevant AS and University Committees and decision-making groups to ensure student voices are well represented in official University processes.

Another important role is annual review and approval of the Associated Students Program Fiscal Year Annual Budgets.

There are seven elected student positions on the AS Executive Board. Each position is responsible for representing different interest areas of students in addition to serving on a variety of AS and University Committees.

The ASWWU Vice President for Diversity is responsible for promoting a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusivity in all AS Programs and Offices. This position is acts as the official liaison on behalf of the ASWWU Executive Board to university offices offering services to marginalized or underrepresented students including but not limited to The Centers for Student Access, Community, and Intercultural Engagement and the Office of Equity. The ASWWU Vice President for Diversity is charged with working with university administrators, faculty, and fellow students as they continue to focus on diversity and equity efforts. This includes the empowerment, retention, and full inclusion of all populations on campus that are and have been systemically and historically marginalized, and or underrepresented.
