Associated Students of Western Washington University

ROP Women's Center

Assistant Coordinator for Creative Programming

About the Position

The Women's Center (WC) Creative Programming Coordinator serves as editor for the Labyrinth journal and implements new, creative expression events each quarter, among other related activities. These events should follow the mission of the Women's Center while reaching out to a more diverse audience.

Position Classification

Assistant Coordinators provide programming support to the Associated Students as a whole and facilitate events, offices and groups throughout the Western and Bellingham community.

Assistant Coordinators report to department coordinators. Specific duties include but are not limited to assisting with event programming, coordinating specific office functions, performing administrative work and maintaining and updating programming resources for the department.

About the Department

The Associated Students Resource & Outreach Programs (ROP) provides information, advocacy, activities and peer-to-peer education to Western students. The seven centers within the ROP strive to empower and support all members of Western's diverse community. The ROP also provides the opportunity for Western's students to gain valuable work and life experience.

The AS Women's Center (WC) is committed to supporting, educating and connecting all people on campus around gender related interests and issues. We provide a safe space to share experiences, resources and referrals, and programs that raise awareness and spark dialogue. The WC promotes gender equality, solidarity against violence and a healthy, inclusive culture for people of all identities.

About the Department: The AS Business Office provides services and resources for the AS programs, employees, and clubs which help facilitate the day-to-day operations of the AS. The AS Business Office exists to facilitate the day-to-day financial operation of the AS.

Term of the Position: This position begins the Monday two weeks before the start of classes fall quarter and ends the Friday of finals week the following spring quarter. The position holder is required to attend AS orientation during the first week of employment. The week prior to classes beginning, the position holder will work with their director and attend office trainings. Payment for the orientation and training is included in the monthly salary. This position requires an average of 15 hours per week. The position holder may work some weeks and less other weeks depending on the office's needs.

Position Responsibilities:

- Devote at least a total of 15 hours per week to AS business.
- Establish and maintain a minimum of 10 office hours per week.
- Coordinate and work closely with the Viking Union Finance Office on fiscally related procedures and processes for AS recognized clubs.
- Assist in preparing club carryforward process before each fiscal year.
- Authorize Expenditure Requests, Petty Cash Vouchers, and Transfer of Funds forms, for all AS recognized clubs which meet the policy and procedural rules of the AS Board of Directors.
- Be available to Clubs to assist them with financial matters.
- Conduct Fall Quarter seminar for training all Club Budget Authorities plus as needed Budget Authority orientations.
- Maintain a database of authorized club Budget Authorities and communicate important information and updates as needed.
- Serve as a Vice Chair member of the A.S. Activities Council and provide current budget information.
- Serve as a voting member of the A.S. ESC Steering Committee and become knowledgeable on the spending habits of the committee for ESC large scale events
- Be responsible for overseeing allocations and repayment of Activities Council.

- Must be available for all AS orientations and trainings.
- Must be able to uphold all AS responsibilities.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Prior experience with managing volunteers or employees
- Budget management knowledge or experience
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively with people of diverse backgrounds and opinions.
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Conflict management knowledge or experience
- Basic computer skills including word, excel, publisher and outlook.
- Basic knowledge of department and position specific responsibilities.

Reportage: The Assistant Business Director reports to the AS Business Director.

Academic Emphasis: N/A

Job Location: Western Washington University - Viking Union

Salary: Position earns a .55 FTE - C (see Pay Schedule) throughout the term of the position and is paid via Western's payroll system.

Rationale: This would serve beneficial for both the AS Assistant Business Director and the ESC clubs where both parties would be knowledgeable on how much is in the Steering Committee budgets and the allocation of funds into the large event accounts. This could eliminate the confusion that the Director has when figuring out what a club has spent and what is leftover. In addition this could also save time by eliminating the preliminary meetings with the individual clubs and the ESC Advisor in discussing their budgets for future events. This additional 2 hours would be included as part of their office hours rather than increasing it.
