Event Overview

Description for event and/or biography of speaker, performer etc.

This workshop will cover current issues and legislation impacting Queer and Undocumented youth. Artist and community organizer Julio Salgado will speak about his experiences and the movement of youth activism for immigrant justice through art. Julio will also bring his art work and personal stories from other queer and undocumented young people to share.

The target audience for the program and expected outcomes

Students, faculty, community members, migrant youth, and high school students.

Past attendance records, if available, and/or success of similar events on other campuses

50

The benefit that will be given to the student body, and how it fits within the mission statement and goals of the Ethnic Student Center and Associated Students

This event explores an important and often unacknowledged intersection of identities impacting many university students. The art work and discussion will give the audience a chance to be in solidarity by listening and learning about the unique challenges undocumented queer people face. This event will allow for community building and inspiring dialogue to increase awareness about these issues.

Publicity and promotion plan

We will be printing posters through copy services that Julio Salgado gave us permission to use with his art work on it. Also we will outreach to professors and through facebook advertising.
