

Mission Statement	Office, Program, and Service Outcomes	Tactics, Methods, and Activities
The Review seeks to enhance the student experience by shedding light on underrepresented issues, inclusive coverage, informing readers, and promoting dialogue.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Weekly publication of the AS Review • Articles accessible online • Publicity about upcoming events • Strengthening of campus community • Accessible professional experience for student writers and photographers • Outlet for student voices, esp. marginalized voices • Documentation of student/ AS activities, events and concerns • Providing AS Board, programs and students with information needed to make informed decisions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AE and EIC hold weekly staff meetings • Writers and editors pitch stories for each issue • Photographers receive photo assignments based on the stories • AE and EIC edit stories and layout paper • AE uploads stories to website and social media • EIC attends various committees to stay informed of AS affairs • Writers cover and preview events to build sense of campus community and provide record of events • Writers and editors give voice to issues on campus through research and soliciting guest submissions • Provide accessible, in-depth coverage of issues happening on campus to further conversation and inform community • Use social media to solicit and share stories