Commented [K01]: This needs to be clarified. WOOT, Viqueen, and Lakewood will not be incorporated under OC Marketing because they have a separate

Commented [K02]: This should be shifted to hourly. I am also advocating for even distribution of hours across quarters. If we keep the current amount of hours that works out to 11.68hrs/wk over the 44 weeks (Summer 8wk, Fall 14wk, Winter 1 lwk, Spring 11 wk) or could be rounded to 12 hr/wk (ideally). Summer requires an immense amount of preparation for Summerstart and the Fall Quarter as well as getting everything in line for the year before students are consistently in and out of the shop. Spring, we no longer need to produce material for excursions, but we are still required to host at least one event that quarter, and hiring takes up a ton of time. Trying to get the normal slew of marketing work done, and do hiring, and host an event, and do the 15hr internship (a fifth of the quarter's hours/2weeks of work), all in 75 hours is simply not feasible. I think an even distribution of hours will account for this. I also find that 15 hours can sometimes be a tad excessive over the fall and winter quarter. Also, it really helps in terms of a students perspective for financial stability. It is really hard to work off a constantly changing income. The current system makes Spring quarter is really hard on a student when a salary that has supported them throughout the year is no longer available or sufficient. It's not exactly a good time for hiring and the duties of marketing are already overbearing when trying to fit them within such few hours.
