A Resolution Regarding Future Dining Operations at WWU January 2019

Western Washington University has been signed onto a 10-year contract with the Aramark Corporation since of September 1st, 2011. This contract places all dining, large-expenditure catering, supply chain management and other related activity for WWU’s dining system under the sole operation of Aramark.

WHEREAS the ASWWU Board of Directors is the single recognized voice for all students of the university; and

WHEREAS WWU administration signed on to the Real Food Campus Commitment in 2016, stating that “We believe colleges and universities must exercise leadership in our communities and throughout society by modeling ways to support ecologically sustainable, humane, and socially equitable food systems”¹; and

WHEREAS the 2018-2025 WWU Strategic Plan stipulates a “Commitment to student success, critical thought, creativity, and sustainability” as well as a “Commitment to equity and justice, and respect for the rights and dignity of others”²; and

WHEREAS Aramark is contracted with over 500 jails and prisons around the U.S. and has a track record of serving food that is unhealthy and unsafe, including food containing maggots and rocks³; and

WHEREAS WWU’s dining union faced pushback and lack of support from Aramark when dining workers moved to unionize in 2012⁴; and

WHEREAS the Shred the Contract campaign has gathered testimony from many student workers who experience mistreatment under Aramark management⁵; and

WHEREAS Aramark supports Big Food corporations through a system of kickbacks, which block out Real Food producers and uphold corporations that exploit workers, communities, and the earth⁶; and

WHEREAS the national Real Meals Campaign, led by both student leaders and sustainable food producers, has exposed a systematic practice of farmer, worker, and environmental exploitation by the three largest American food service providers, Aramark, Compass Group, and Sodexo⁷; and

WHEREAS the Fall 2017 Feeding Western survey found that over half of WWU students are facing food insecurity, illustrating that WWU’s current food system is not affordable or nourishing for many students⁸; and

WHEREAS WWU has a commitment stated in the Food System’s Working Group (FSWG)’s Multi-Year Action Plan to working with religious and cultural student groups to ensure that food is culturally appropriate and not appropriative⁹; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, the 2018-2019 ASWWU Board of Directors formally endorses the Shred the Contract Campaign and demands that WWU administration commit to discontinuing WWU’s relationship with Aramark upon the expiration of the current contract in 2021.

BE IT RESOLVED, the 2018-2019 ASWWU Board of Directors commits to collaborating alongside Western administration to begin the process of creating a self-operated dining system—a system which will be run entirely by the university rather than paying a third party company to do this work.

BE IT RESOLVED, the 2018-2019 ASWWU Board of Directors commits to doing everything in their power to ensure that this self operated dining system preserves the current dining union, rehires all current student and full time staff, honoring pay rate and seniority, with the exception of those staff who were brought in by Aramark.

BE IT RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be distributed via email to President Sabah Randhawa, Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services Melynda Huskey, Director of University Residences Leonard Jones, Associate Director of University Residences Kurt Willis, the WWU Board of Trustees, and the WWU student body.
