VII. ACTION ITEMS – Senate*

- A. Sadat say Muslim students fasting during Ramadan affects their academic performance. She asks for professor and faculty to have accommodation for students. Students more time to complete assignments, preferably a 12-hour grace period. Ford says these accommodations should take place even after the COVID- 19 pandemic ends. Zerai adds there is a grey area on what we define on “reasonable” accommodation and it needs to be clear on what that exactly mean. Romo suggest that a resolution doesn’t institutionalize the accommodation, it must go through EOO. Sadat says a lot of students are not aware of the accommodation state law that allows students for an extension. Bashir says professors are not acknowledging Ramadan or any accommodations on the syllabus. Van Leeuwen says that the state law isn’t specific on Ramadan, that might be why it’s not the syllabus. Barenburg says that this could pass if you all meet with the EOO. Arnold justifies voting no for the approval of the Ramadan Accommodations by saying he is in favor of the resolution of the content, but he doesn’t think that we should be making a resolution until we know what the EOO policy will be.
