

4/20/22

- Eli Stanciu - VP Governmental Affairs; Quincy Ingles expressed interest and hasn't reached out; Pierce can reach out to Quincy and Eli can reach out to Brenner Barclay (they/them) who is the president of the senate
- Jasmine Fast - combining ATF and TAC; asked if Pierce has thoughts about this
- Pierce liked the idea of combining the two committees; centered around similar goal, would like to have the combined attendance
- Pierce Bock the senator for the college of the environment and urban planning/sustainable dev major will be helping get out the vote; has Pierce been approved by the executive board?
  - Not yet; Jasmine is going to get the executive board to vote on Pierce as the representative for the referendum
  - Pierce wants to understand how the fee works before he commits 100% to being the advocate for the fee
  - Brenner is adding the vote on the senator advocate to this Friday's executive committee agenda
  - The senator can recruit student helpers for the campaign not us
- Who can table? And where should we table? Inconclusive
- Laura would work with Jenn to set up new meeting day and time
- Who is the referendum's sponsor? Don't have one yet, maybe Pierce
  - A Referendum's sponsor must attend the Mandatory Election Meeting.
