V. Officer Reports

AS President: absent

AS Senate President: Rahma reported that the Student Senate passed their Visions and Value Statement. The Senate decided that when sending out resolutions, they will also create an easier to read version and an infographic. The Senate has been doing Instagram takeovers. Rahma reported that she has been attending WAWU events. She will be starting the Student Trustee Selection Committee soon. The Senate has been working with the Gallery on a project called Arbitrary Borders to distribute art throughout campus. It was mostly being headed by Quincy Ingalls, who has not been around, and now Rahma and Ted Topper have been working on it. Some pro-staff are having issues with it. Rahma and Topper have to meet with people and put their foot down about continuing the project.

ASVP for Governmental Affairs: Resendiz-Eyler reported that he has been working on Local Lobby Day, and the budget was approved by LAC.

ASVP for Activities: Schexnayder reported that Activities Council has been working on their Charge and Charter.

ASVP for Diversity: Boliy reported that she has plans to meet with Nia Gibson from the BSC. She is going to meet with Eric Alexander.

ASVP for Student Services: absent

ASVP for Sustainability: Seb Genge reported that he attended the Washington Oregon Cascadia Higher Education Sustainability Conference.

VI. Announcements and Other Business
