V. Information Items

A. Urban Planners club – $7,305 (Weston Sitterding)

Funding would be for an urban planning event in April held in Minneapolis. The club is aiming for 22 members from club to attend. The club is also applying to SEJF (Sustainability, Equity, and Justice Fund) grants. Currently, their department does not have much money to assist the club but the department is covering registration fees. The club has not applied to the Student Enhancement Fund yet.

B. Judo Club - $2,375 (not represented, passed over)

C. Dead Parrots Society – $1,200 (Anthea Brown and Juniper Copeland)

Funds would be to invite two improv alumni from New York City for an event for the student body. Club says that the event does not just apply to theatre majors and would be beneficial for the entire student body because improv improves
