Ryan explained who will pass the document and hopes it will gain support from the student body. She notes there has been past support for divestment. Ingalls asks where the money that is being diverted from supporting fossil fuels will go. Pratt it will go to the environmental, social, governance (ESG) funds. VII. INFORMATION ITEMS - Senate*”

a. AS Charter

The new deadline is going to be in February. Durbin reports that Wong hopes something will be approved in January which will then be presented at the February meeting. Ryan oversees the taskforce for updating the AS charter, and it needs a student senator. She explains how the meeting will go and that they will meet with Melynda Huskey.

b. Photoshoot for Senate

Dizon reports the photoshoot will be delayed until next Wednesday and Thursday. Dizon also says they would like to get pics taken during the meetings so it can be shown to the public.

VIII. ACTION ITEMS – Senate*

IX. SENATE REPORTS

a. Committee Assignments – Academic Coordinating Commission (ACC) Power, Equity, Justice (PEJ) Taskforce & Academic Coordinating Commission (ACC) General Commission

Durbin reports it is a faculty Senate committee. She explained says there are two open seats in the general commission of the ACC. She explained what the work includes. Would like either Senate or Executive Board members because they will get paid rather than an At-Large student. Durbin explained that members will have to look at the documents before the meeting to understand what is going on. Regarding the PEJ GUR, Durbin explained it would replace the ACGM GUR and every student would be required to take. There is a taskforce concerning this and the faculty would like two students to join. These students’ terms would begin middle to end of winter quarter and end April of 2025. Durbin thinks it is better to have those students be paid and would rather them be elected members rather than an At-Large students who might not be paid.

X. OTHER BUSINESS

Durbin introduced Moreno to the Senate and announced there are two applications for the Graduate Senator positions.

Adjournment: Dacey Durbin, Senate Vice-Chair, adjourned the meeting at 6:30 p.m.
